Firm's race shame after 'unfair' exit of sales rep

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A COMPANY which has just five black staff out of 800 was found to have racially discriminated against an African-Caribbean employee and effectively dismissed him unfairly.

An employment tribunal said Giles Marcus, formerly a sales rep at Pharmaceutical giant AstraZeneca's marketing HQ in Capability Green, Luton, had been discriminated against 'on the grounds of his race and this was the reason for his resignation' in 2010.

Mr Marcus, 35, was criticised by his manager over his sales technique and told he needed to improve on his 'in-call performance', his proactivity and understanding of the business.

Bedford Employment Tribunal found that this was despite statements by others that Mr Marcus' performance was fine. He was issued with a written warning, to which he appealed against, but later resigned from the company where he had started in 2007.

The tribunal said the 'primary facts' it was 'prepared to draw inferences from' in reaching its findings were as follows:

- The number of black staff employed in the UK marketing company (five out of 800, 200 of which are based in Luton)

- The absence of any equal opportunities policy

- No evidence that there is an equal opportunities officer allocated with responsibility for it

- No apparent monitoring of equal opportunities

- The treatment of Mr Marcus regarding his 'failure' compared to the treatment of a white female colleague.

In the tribunal's judgement it states: 'The claimant's contract of employment makes no reference to equal opportunities and although we asked the respondent's witnesses about this, they were not able to assist us about an equal opportunities policy and the amount of training they had received in equal opportunities/diversity amounted to nil or very little.

'Similarly there was little in the way of monitoring taken by the company and their response to the race relations questionnaire was, in the tribunal's view, evasive.'

It also said the manager – who has since left AstraZeneca – had little if any training and no awareness of such a policy and there was a 'lack of any legitimate explanation' for his treatment of Mr Marcus.

This week the tribunal was set to decide how much to award Mr Marcus, but he agreed a financial settlement with AstraZeneca before the hearing and is not able to disclose information to the press.

An AstraZeneca spokesman said: "We were disappointed by the findings of the Employment Tribunal in this matter.

"AstraZeneca understands that its people are its most important resource and is committed to ensuring that it has a diverse workforce with equality of opportunity."

Luton on Sunday asked AstraZeneca how many of its 200-strong Luton workforce were black but the firm said it could not find out the information before our press deadline.

EasyJet's UK director Paul Simmons with actress Lorraine Chase

Lorraine's back to celebrate 65 millionth flyer

ACTRESS Lorraine Chase, forever linked to Luton Airport through her iconic 1970s Campari advert, returned to the scene that sparked off her fame.

She was there on Friday to celebrate Luton-based airline easyJet flying its 65 millionth traveller from the airport.

The low-cost carrier also unveiled its bi-weekly route to Corfu from March 2012 and previewed its new TV advert, which will be airing from next month.

Lorraine has been synonymous with Luton since the Campari advert – which kick-started her career – spawned her catchphrase 'Nah, Luton Airport!' as a reply to the question of 'Were you truly waffled here from paradise?'

The ad then inspired the 1979 hit record 'Luton Airport' by Cats UK.

She checked in easyJet's first ever passengers in 1995 on the Luton to Glasgow flight.

Paul Simmons, easyJet's UK director, said: "We couldn't think of anyone more appropriate to celebrate our milestone achievement and new Corfu route launch than with Lorraine. We're really pleased she was able to join us again at Luton Airport."

Park gypsies 'out of order' says Euro MP

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

TEN people have been handed football banning orders totalling 52 years for their part in the trouble at a Luton Town match last year.

They were in court on public disorder offences in connection with events following a Hatters game against York City at Kenilworth Road in May 2010.

On Friday at Luton Crown Court, Ryan Downey, 24, of Julius Gardens, Luton, who had pleaded guilty at Luton Magistrates' Court, was jailed for six months and banned from attending football matches for six years.

Jamie Sales, 26, of Russet Way, Dunstable, was found guilty after a trial at Luton Crown Court on August 31 and was jailed for 12 months and handed a six-year football banning order.

Stewart Farquharson, 45, of Grove Road, pleaded guilty at crown court and was jailed for nine months. He was also given a six-year banning order.

Ashley McChesney, 20, of Buckfield Avenue, Dunstable, pleaded guilty at magistrates' court and was sentenced to nine months in a young offenders institute plus

ONE of Luton's Euro MPs blasted travellers for setting up an illegal camp in Luton.

Tory MEP David Campbell Bannerman hit out after caravans from the Dale Farm site in Essex turned up 60 miles away at Stockwood Park, Farley Hill, on Monday. Mr Campbell Bannerman urged Luton Borough Council to act 'as quickly as possible to clear one of the town's parks of an unauthorised encampment'.

He said: "It is completely out of order that travellers have seen fit to illegally occupy a local amenity that is supposed to be there for the entire local community."

"It is a park for local people, not a campsite, and the travellers should leave immediately. This is not about human rights, this is about the law being equally applied to all."

"We need to make sure the travellers are moved on as quickly as possible."

Irish traveller Flint Devons, 29, who lived at Dale Farm for seven years, said: "I moved to Luton rather than wait for the bailiffs because my health was suffering."

"My son and daughter were already in schools in Essex. Then we had to move and lose it all."

"We came to Luton because we've been here before. The word has now spread back to Dale Farm."

Mr Devons had warned of more caravans to follow, but so far none have.

In a statement the council said: 'We were made aware of the encampment at Stockwood Park on Monday and immediately started the standard legal procedure for eviction.'

'As part of this process we received clearance from the health visitor and education officer on Thursday and they declared they are happy for the eviction process to proceed.'

'The section 77 notices informing the travellers that they are parked illegally and asking them to leave were served by Constant & Co on Thursday evening.'

'The magistrates' court has given us a court date for the morning of Wednesday, which is the first available.'

'Eviction is then 24 hours after the court hearing providing the application is successful.'

Despite Mr Devons' claims, the council insisted the travellers had not come from Dale Farm.

The statement added: 'There is no evidence to suggest they came from Dale Farm.'

'The travellers themselves have told us that they are here for a funeral and they are not from Dale Farm.'

Jail terms and football bans for York match guilty 'fans'

a further two months for breach of a previous order and handed a six-year football banning order.

On Wednesday, a further three men will be sentenced at crown court. They are David Cremin, 24, of Meyrick Avenue, Luton, who pleaded guilty at Luton Magistrates' Court, John Ruocco, 21, of Kingswood Close, Houghton Regis, who pleaded guilty at crown court and Gary Booth, 40, of Kinross Crescent, Luton, who was found guilty after a trial at crown court on August 31.

Last year, a 17-year-old from Luton was sentenced to a ten month referral order, costs and a three-year football ban after pleading guilty to affray at magistrates' court.

Another 17-year-old from Luton was made the subject of a supervision requirement, a youth rehabilitation order, was ordered to pay costs and given unpaid work together with a three-year football banning order after pleading guilty to affray at magistrates' court.

Neither of the teenagers can be identified for legal reasons.

In all, 37 people were arrested after the incident. Eight others have received cautions for affray and 15 teenagers received final warnings.

Superintendent David Boyle said: "We will not tolerate this kind of behaviour. The game of football is a sport that families should be able to enjoy in safety."

"I hope the sentencing results today show that Bedfordshire Police will use all methods available to them to bring anyone who breaks the law to justice."

Among those sentenced who live outside of Luton were Kieran Gavigan, 27, of Churchill Road, Leighton Buzzard, pleaded guilty at Luton Crown Court and was jailed for seven months and handed a six-year football banning order. Michael Howe, 44, of Dellfield, St Albans, was found guilty after a trial at Luton Crown Court on August 31 and was jailed for a total of 13 months and handed a six-year football banning order.

Ben Butler, 20, of St Andrews Close, Flitwick, who pleaded guilty in January at Luton Crown Court, was sentenced to 19 months imprisonment suspended for 18 months, handed 250 hours of unpaid work and given a five-year football banning order.

Jordan Shepherd, 27, of Barrow, Suffolk, who pleaded guilty and was sentenced to five months imprisonment suspended for 18 months, 250 hours of unpaid work and handed a five-year banning order.

A further man was charged with affray but the charge was dismissed on August 22.

Police patrols on the up after spate of attacks

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

FOUR violent attacks in the space of two months have links to the same pub.

In the most recent incident, a 20-year-old left Bar Chameleon in High Street North, Dunstable, and was kicked and stamped on by eight men in an alley round the corner before being told to leave or else he would be killed.

The victim fled to his girlfriend's house before being taken to hospital to be treated for a broken jaw, which had to be wired into place using four screws and two metal plates.

That happened at 4am on September 11, weeks after a 24-year-old was refused entry into Bar Chameleon at 2.55am on August 15 and was then in an 'altercation' with another man who punched him. He fell to the ground and was left with a bleed on the brain and a large cut to his head.

On July 25, a teenager was out celebrating his 18th birthday was found beaten and unconscious outside Bar Chameleon at about 2.30am. He had been drinking in Cookies and Cream before the attack. He had a possible broken cheekbone and swelling to his face.

In the other attack, on July 16, a man was punched in the back of his head outside the bar, before the group of men began to attack the victim's friend, leaving them with cuts and bruises.

A Bedfordshire Police spokesman said:

PUB: Bar Chameleon

"The four incidents in Dunstable were all separate assaults, but over the past few months we have increased night-time patrols in the town centre.

"We have also spoken with licensees and the licensing authority to establish what more can be done to ensure that people can safely enjoy a night out.

"CCTV remains a useful tool to help us identify potential suspects and witnesses and we have used council-owned and private cameras to assist us with our enquiries.

"If anyone did witness the assault on September 11, or any of the other incidents, then I would urge them to contact Bedfordshire Police on 01234 841212."

Cllr James Jamieson, leader of Central Bedfordshire Council, said: "We have been liaising with the police about these incidents in Dunstable and understand that they have increased night-time patrols in the town centre during key times and evenings."

Bar Chameleon did not return our calls.

Witness plea after man dies following accident on road

A CYCLIST has died after he was in collision with a car.

The 59-year-old was on his bike when it was in collision with a black Vauxhall Corsa on Old Bedford Road, Luton, on Thursday at 7.34pm.

The cyclist was taken to Luton & Dunstable Hospital having suffered a serious head injury, and later died.

A full police collision investigation is underway and the officer in charge, PC Sam Sparkes of the Collision Investigation Unit, is keen to speak with anyone who saw the collision or anyone who saw the car and cyclist before it happened as they were travelling on Old Bedford Road.

Anyone with information is urged to contact PC Sparkes on 01438 757637, or text your message on 07786 200011, or contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Driver ko'd in assault

A TAXI driver was hit over the head and knocked unconscious as he argued with five passengers.

The victim was attacked close to Indigo Taxi Company in Marsh Road, Luton, by a group of men aged between 18 to 22 who then left the scene on foot.

The cabbie was taken to hospital before being allowed home later that evening.

Investigating police Sergeant Pauline Leng said: "As the incident happened inside and outside the vehicle it is possible members of the public and other motorists did not realise a person was being assaulted but they may have witnessed the five men leaving the scene.

"I would urge anyone who was in the Marsh Road area that evening to think back and if they remember seeing a group of people acting suspiciously or running from a taxi they should contact the police."

If you have information relating to incident, which happened on September 10 between 6pm and 6.19pm, contact Sgt Leng at Luton Police Station, in confidence, on 01582 394318, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

A WHISTLEBLOWER hotline has been axed after £11,000 of taxpayers' money was spent operating it for two years - with just one phone call to show for it.

Last year Luton on Sunday reported that, during 2009, not a single call was made by staff at Luton Borough Council which paid private company In-Touch a flat rate £5,500 annual fee to monitor the line.

Of all four 'whistleblowing' complaints made through various routes to the council during 2010 - one of which was to the hotline - none were taken up for further action or investigation.

As a result, the council has decided to scrap the service altogether as of next month.

Liberal Democrat Cllr Michael Dolling

(pictured) said: "Spending £11,000 over two years to answer one phone call is an astonishing waste. It says a lot about Labour that they didn't do a thing about it, and residents are paying through the nose to this day. It is disappointing though that this expensive line is still in place even after the same committee demanded a cheaper option a year ago."

A Town Hall spokeswoman said: "The Audit and Governance Committee asked officers to obtain comparative figures for whistleblowing complaints made to In-Touch by other organisations and to consider whether the council could combine with other authorities to purchase a service of this kind.

"The outcome agreed was that the council's internal process (ie making a disclosure to the Monitoring Officer) was working well, cost effective and could stand alone.

"This, in conjunction with the current financial constraints, resulted in the council giving the contractual three months' notice to terminate the arrangement with In-Touch, and this service will cease on October 9, 2011."

THREE benefits fraudsters were caught out illegally claiming more than £6,000 between them in separate cases.

Anam Miah, 41, of Chatsworth Road, Luton, was charged with failing to notify a change in his circumstances while claiming tax benefit from Luton Borough Council.

Luton Magistrates' Court heard that Miah had jointly bought a restaurant in Buckinghamshire but failed to disclose this to the council, therefore dishonestly obtaining £1,780 which he is currently repaying.

Miah also received a 12 month community order and told to do 60 hours of unpaid work.

Elizabeth Kamau, 31, of Malthouse Green, Luton, was also charged with failing to notify a change in her circumstances after she returned to employment. Kamau fraudulently received benefits totalling £1,210 which she is also paying back to the council. The court issued a £250 fine and ordered to pay £220 towards the council's costs.

Prabhulal Karsan, 57, of Humberstone Road, Luton, was charged with dishonestly furnishing a document in order to claim council tax.

The court heard how Karsan jointly owned a shop and flat in Northamptonshire which was rented out on a commercial basis.

By failing to declare this property ownership, Karsan received benefits totalling £3,158, which he has since repaid in full to the council.

Karsan received a 12 month community order with a 16 week curfew and was ordered to repay £220 towards the council's costs.

Dog walker airlifted after quarry tumble

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A WOMAN fell 50 feet into a quarry after tripping over her pet.

The dog walker, 27, was airlifted to hospital with suspected spinal injuries after slipping into Chalk Lane Quarry, Dunstable, off the A5. The air ambulance helicopter landed inside the quarry to rescue her.

A medical crew worked closely with colleagues from the East of England Ambulance Service NHS Trust, Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service and Bedfordshire Police to help transport the woman out of the quarry.

They then administered pain relief before packaging her to protect suspected spinal injuries for the flight to Marshalls Airport in Cambridge. Upon landing, the woman was taken to Addenbrooke's by road ambulance.

Critical Care Paramedic Jemma Varela said: "This is exactly the type of incident where an air ambulance is vital.

"The patient was in a location which was hard to reach in a land ambulance and the helicopter meant that we could get specialist treatment and equipment to her when and where she needed it most.

"We were also able to take her to the most appropriate hospital for her injuries, rather than the nearest, to make sure she received the best possible treatment."

Pregnant woman is bailed in 'slavery' case

THE pregnant wife of one of the travellers accused of slavery offences has been bailed on condition she only leaves home to give birth.

Josie Connors, 30, appeared at Luton Magistrates' Court on Thursday accused of keeping people in servitude and false labour.

She was held, along with four men, three of whom were her brothers, as part of a police raid on the Green Acre travellers site near Leighton Buzzard. Another of the brothers, Johnny Connors, 27, was at the court on Wednesday after being arrested on Tuesday. He is charged with conspiracy to hold a person in servitude and conspire with other persons to require another person to perform forced labour.

Mr Connors, of St Albans, was remanded in custody after bail was refused. They are both due to appear at Luton Crown Court along with brothers James Connors, 23, Tommy Connors, 27, and Patrick Connors, 19, and their brother-in-law James Connors, 33, on December 5 for a plea and case management hearing.

Two other people were arrested after agreeing to come to Luton Police Station. A 61-year-old woman has been released on bail until October 31; while a man, 51, was released on police bail.

FA chief in 'racist' email storm set to leave role

BY LUI STRACCIA
 lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE boss of Bedfordshire FA who admitted to an 'error of judgement' in forwarding a 'racist' email will be stepping down.

Chief executive Peter Brown, (pictured) who earlier this month apologised for sending a message 'joke' depicting a black Scottish dog, will quit his post at the end of the year.

Mr Brown, 65, who has worked for Beds FA for more than 40 years and had been due to retire next year, stepped down from the national FA Council after his 'mistake' came to light.

He had been handed a final written warning for his breach of conduct following a disciplinary process. On Wednesday, the county's local FA council which - although it runs football in Bedfordshire, has no powers - held a routine meeting where the events of the last few weeks were discussed.

The following day, Beds FA made the announcement regarding Mr Brown's future.

Richard Robinson, chairman of Beds FA, said: "Following recent speculation regarding the position of our chief executive it has been decided that Peter Brown will stand down from the role on December 31.

"The board of directors declined to accept Mr Brown's resignation, asking him to remain in the post until a successor is suitably in position at the start of January 2012. The process of appointing a successor will commence immediately.

"This decision has received the full support of the County FA Council and other partners."

Witnesses needed to early morning attack

A 32-YEAR-OLD man was attacked as he walked home in the early hours of the morning.

The victim was left with a cut to his arm after being set upon by a man who had been shouting at him in Moor Path, Luton, at 1.30am on Wednesday.

PC Sophie McGrath said: "The man we are looking for in connection with this assault had a medium build, was clean shaven and was wearing a blue or black baseball cap, a dark top, black jogging bottoms and dark coloured training shoes with a red stripe."

The attacker is described as white with a dark complexion or possibly Asian.

If you have information contact PC McGrath, on 01582 473399, or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Council's mortgage role?

SIR - Not wishing to pour scorn on any initiative that helps people to own property, especially those finding it difficult to make their first purchase, but exactly when did Luton Borough Council turn itself into a bank?

Banks are supposed to be the experts at defining risk (despite their current low standing) and if they will not provide more than 75 per cent as a mortgage, then this is because they think the other 25 per cent is a risk too far.

Who are the experts at the council who know better, and can therefore be so sure that local council taxpayers can stand as guarantor?

Just whose bright idea was this? Perhaps they would be prepared to start a company providing this finance at their risk and backed by their own money, if they are so certain that the banks have got it wrong.

System failing vulnerable

SIR - I am extremely concerned about the current state of the care system in this area and the country as a whole. It is not only failing the elderly but those with illnesses and disabilities alike.

We should no longer tolerate a system which leaves many with no support and others with poor quality services. A survey by the National Autistic Society found that two-thirds of adults with autism do not have the support they need and as a result a third had developed mental health problems.

Recently, Andrew Dilnot released a report on how the system can be improved. As a local resident and a supporter of The National Autistic Society, I would like to appeal to our local MPs to bring this issue to parliament and help make Mr Dilnot's suggestions a reality.

Without this, people will continue to be left to cope without the support they desperately need.

Justice of 50p tax rate

SIR - Let's keep the 50p tax rate – only one per cent of the population earn enough to pay it – as the revenue has significant benefits for public services in our area.

But it is also an issue of justice. At the moment the poorest people in the UK pay a greater proportion of their income in tax than the wealthiest do.

It would be good to see the MPs of this area make it clear in these pages that they believe keeping the 50p tax rate is part of creating a more just society.

As the season gets underway, there will be plenty of affordable, locally-sourced and tasty game meat available.

Game meat is becoming increasingly popular and independent market researcher Mintel predicts UK sales will reach £84 million this year.

Travellers show lack of concern for others

SIR - Thankfully Luton Borough Council has acted quickly in stopping the travellers from Dale Farm setting up 'home' in Stockwood Park.

They said their Human Rights have been abused and try to get the Health & Safety Executive on their side, yet they disregard the law to set up camp and when they leave the people of Luton must foot the bill to clean up the mess they leave behind.

Whatever sympathy they may have gained from the public is gone because they have proved that they don't care about anyone but themselves.

tion, the British Association for Shooting and Conservation, works all year round to encourage people to try game meat, which is healthy and highly nutritious.

Shoot providers spend £250 million a year on conservation and shooting is involved in the management of two-thirds of the rural land area.

People who shoot put in 2.7 million work days on conservation projects every year. For more information and some easy game recipes visit www.basc.org.uk

The future may be bleak

SIR - The Chartered Insurance Institute's recent discovery that four in five people have no idea of how much they will have to pay for care, while half think long-term care is free is indeed worrying.

They call for the Government to merely raise awareness of the reality of social care, but disregard the immediate challenges of wider economic climate that the public is contending with. We are faced with falling salaries – and in many cases redundancy – rising inflation and the soaring price of food and fuel. How can people save for their retirement when feeding the family tonight is too much of a stretch?

It isn't just 'vulnerable' or 'low income' households which are struggling. Families who never, ever expected to face financial difficulty have tightened the purse strings.

People who were once able to save are now finding that the money they had put aside is being eroded as the financial crisis wipes out years' worth of savings within days as markets tumble as a result of global uncertainty. While it is important for financial institutions to raise this issue, they must also come up with real support and solutions rather than simply making headline-grabbing statements about the uncertain future.

Better financial support for people struggling with mortgages and debt is crucial. Perhaps when this is offered, people will begin to have some leeway to think of the future rather than living hand to mouth.

Give carers a break

SIR - Did your readers know that there are currently more than 700,000 people with dementia, including Alzheimer's disease, in the UK?

It is estimated that there will be more than a million people with dementia by 2025.

Caring for a loved one with dementia can be a lonely, stressful experience. The feeling of disconnection is hardest to bear.

There may be precious moments of clarity, when memories return and the years roll away, but for the most part carers have to watch their loved ones drifting slowly away.

So many carers are in desperate need of respite, but opportunities to be relieved of the caring role for even a short time are few and far between. More than a third of carers have never been able to take a break since they started caring.

I work for a charity called Vitalise. We provide essential respite breaks for disabled people and carers at our accessible holiday centres around the UK. Each year many hundreds of people enjoy desperately needed breaks with us.

We regularly have special weeks for people with Alzheimer's and dementia and their partners – there are some coming up in January.

Relieved of all their care worries, carers can regain their strength and reconnect with their loved ones. They tell us that their breaks with us often make the difference between coping and despair.

If you or someone you care about is affected by Alzheimer's or dementia and you would like to know more about our special Alzheimer's Weeks, please call 0303 303 0145 or email bookings@vitalise.org.uk or visit www.vitalise.org.uk

Boost braille initiative

SIR - It's Read for RNIB Day on Friday, October 14, and I am appealing to readers to help the Royal National Institute of Blind People (RNIB) celebrate the joy of reading, and raise money for reading services such as braille and talking books for almost two million blind and partially sighted people across the UK.

Reading must be one of my greatest pleasures. I would happily spend the rest of my days in a comfortable chair with every book I've ever read plus the thousands not yet in my repertoire! I cannot imagine being denied of the sight to do so.

Whether it's getting together with friends and family to host a literary lunch or a reading group, or taking on a more active challenge, your contribution will make a huge difference to the lives of blind and partially sighted people. Simply call 0845 345 0054 or visit www.rnib.org.uk/readformrnbday

Please take part in Read for RNIB Day and help blind and partially sighted people find their lives again through reading.

Protect milk sources

SIR - I'm just about to set off on the UK Vagina Monologues tour and I'm looking forward to coming to Dunstable on October 26.

With more than 60 dates on the calendar, I'll need a good tea break. But, it almost made me spit my tea out when I learned from the World

Society for the Protection of Animals (WSPA) that the milk in my cuppa could soon be coming from factory farmed cows.

The future of British dairy farming is under threat from a global spread of intensification. Industrial-scale farms feature huge numbers of animals, with round-the-clock milking, a high risk of poor levels of welfare and little or no access to open fields.

I've been campaigning alongside WSPA to stop these farms taking hold in Britain but the battle is far from over. That's why I'm supporting WSPA's Not in my Cuppa campaign. I'm appealing to readers to support it too, by organising their own fundraising tea party. As well as being a great excuse to get friends, family or work colleagues together for a good cuppa and a nice bit of cake, it'll help raise vital funds for the charity.

WSPA has experienced fundraisers who will help you make your tea party a success. Contact them on 0800 316 9772 or fundraising@wspa.org.uk for your pack.

There's no way factory farmed milk will find its way into my cuppa. I hope you agree and you're inspired to say 'no' to factory milk from battery cows by hosting a tea party for the Not in my Cuppa campaign.

Support stroke campaign

SIR - I may be known more widely as someone who has campaigned to eradicate the abuse of children through the 'Sarah's Law' campaign named after my daughter. However I am writing to you now as someone who has had a stroke – a stroke survivor.

Around 150,000 people have a stroke in the UK every year and millions live with the after-effects. Amazingly around a quarter of stroke survivors are under the age of 65 with some children even experiencing a stroke.

For some it is very difficult to make a recovery, but for many others, like me, with the right help, support and care, we can go on to have a successful and happy life.

We can continue to be an active parent, remain independent and enjoy the small things in life that keep us going such as reading, talking to friends and going out for a meal. I know many of you will be finding life that little harder at the moment. The financial squeeze, the public service cuts combined with recovering from a stroke mean that it is sometimes difficult to see the light at the end of the tunnel.

However, I wanted to let you know that The Stroke Association is running the largest ever consultation of people affected by stroke at the moment.

Are you someone who has been affected by a stroke or do you care for someone who has had a stroke? Are you feeling the financial pinch at the moment? Have services you rely on been reduced or taken away completely? What do you really need to help you get back to a better life?

We all need to be saying what we need more of so that stroke issues get on the political and media agendas.

Any readers who are interested in filling out the survey should call 020 7566 0317 or email campaigns@stroke.org.uk

Inquiry may speed up A5-M1 Link Road plan

BY LUI STRACCIA

lustraccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PUBLIC inquiry into the long-awaited Dunstable Bypass will be 'brought forward' to the New Year, it was announced this week.

The Highways Agency formally issued a public notice on Wednesday of its intention to restart the inquiry process, which had been originally planned for June 2010 until it was hit by delays.

The bypass – also known as the A5-M1 Link Road Scheme – would connect the A5 just to the north of the existing A5/A505 roundabout junction, with the aim being to cut traffic on the A5 through Dunstable.

The Planning Inspectorate has now been asked by the Agency to nominate an independent inspector to conduct the inquiry, with a date and venue yet to be arranged, after being given the go-ahead by the Secretary of State for Transport.

This means work on the project – estimated to cost between £156m and £212m – could start in 2014, rather than 'sometime after 2015' timescale which was previously announced.

The move comes after the Government secured £45 million private sector investment for a new 2.9 mile congestion-busting dual carriageway running east from the A5 north of Dunstable to the M1 at a new junction (Junction 11a).

Parliamentary Under Secretary of State for Transport Mike Penning said: "I have said that private investment can help progress transport projects and the £50m contribution to the costs of the A5-M1 link road is an example of this."

"The third-party funding significantly improves the return on public investment for this scheme and I am pleased to announce that the public inquiry, which was suspended last year, can be re-started. I'd like to thank the council and developers for their commitment to this scheme."

South West Bedfordshire MP Andrew Selous said: "The deal with the developers and the restarting of the public inquiry is fantastic news for jobs and the local economy."

Cllr Ken Matthews said: "This much-needed bypass will not only relieve major traffic congestion for Dunstable and Houghton Regis and the surrounding area, but provide a massive economic boost, cementing Central Bedfordshire's position as a great location for innovation and opportunity."

GRIDLOCK: The new road scheme should ease congestion on the A5

Cannabis grower told by JP to 'get off the drugs'

A 22-YEAR-OLD who grew cannabis for his own personal use did so because he had become 'fed up' with having to trade with dealers.

When police raided Karl Byford's flat in High Street North, Dunstable, on August 26 they discovered 55 plants of the drug, which were all in different stages of growth.

In a room in the flat, which he rents from his father, there were also three high powered lights, but it was not described as 'sophisticated' equipment.

Prosecutor Joy Gir said: "He fully admitted growing the cannabis and that he and his friends had become fed up with having to deal with dealers and pay them for cannabis."

"He told police his father had no knowledge of the drugs."

Furrukh Usmani, defending, said: "There were three bright lights and three fans."

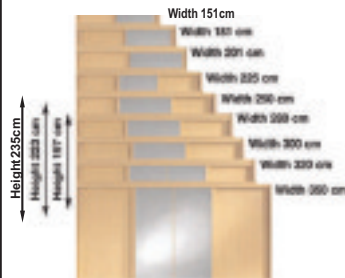

"This isn't a case when hydroponics or anything of that nature have been used, it was not a professional job and there was no sophisticated equipment used."

At Luton Magistrates' Court on Wednesday, Byford, who pleaded guilty to producing cannabis, was sentenced to a 140-hour community order, a three-month curfew, for which he would be electronically tagged, between 8pm-6am, and to pay £85 costs.

In sentencing him, chairman of the magistrates Cllr Barry Neale told Byford to 'get off the drugs'.

A sham marriage that needs to be annulled

WE occasionally come into contact with the UK Border Agency, the guardians of our shores.

Often it is their rounding up of illegal immigrants who are caught working without the right to be in this country that brings them to our notice.

Sometimes it is the more interesting tales of sham marriages. This week they tell us they have arrested one person on an aircraft minutes before they were due to leave the country.

The issue relates to a wedding ceremony at Bedford Register Office a fortnight ago.

The rights and wrongs of that will be debated in a court of law at a date to be arranged and justice will prevail.

But on the basis of sham partnerships, shouldn't Prime Minister David Cameron and his sidekick Nick Clegg be looking over their shoulder? If ever there was a fake marriage, and one made in hell, this is it.

We all knew their unholy wedlock, for which no one voted, would be a disaster. The scale of that shambles though is growing by the day.

Any couple going through a hard time might take heart from the rancour and bitterness which exist between this Con-Dem coalition. It's surprising they haven't called on Relate, but there are miracles, and there are miracles. This week's Lib-Dem conference in Birmingham was not only the start of the party gathering fun, but open season on your partners in crime.

Lib-Dem Business Secretary Vince Cable gave his 'fake' best mates a good kicking from the podium and Deputy PM Clegg defended his decision and right to be 'rude' about the Tories.

There appears to be no love lost between Clegg and Mid Beds MP Nadine Dorries, who in one of Clegg's tirades was gratuitously singled out for a special mention. Making it clear who your enemies are, I suppose.

Anyway divorce is being mooted yet again. Personally, I gave it six months when it happened, but durability in politics seems to surpass that elsewhere in life.

So the catfight will continue, but while the children are squabbling in the playground the rest of us may have noticed we are, economically, clinging by our fingertips over the edge of the abyss. The top and bottom of it is, we appear doomed.

One political commentator announced at the weekend there were doubts the economy would ever recover. Ever? More worryingly, he suggested that no one in power knew what to do about this never-ending crisis.

People are feeling the pain of cuts, the Government's claim that private business will replace those jobs lost in the public sector look far from being the actual truth and now it has been suggested there should be an increase in VAT to 22.5 per cent. More taxation to pay for political incompetence and disharmony.

All around us people are busting a gut to make a living, swimming against the raging tide, but the empire is crumbling and the sham marriage needs to be annulled.

Strong single government is what we need, not a joint one of little or no tolerance towards each other.

I don't know what the economic answer is, but then no one in government seems to, either. The ride is going to get a lot rockier. Hold tight.

Road hill sign anomaly disguises uphill battle

EXCLUSIVE

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophiescott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A BEMUSED resident was inclined to point out the council has made another mistake – this one being most slope-y.

After last week's story about Luton Borough Council's misspelt Beatles brick, Luton on Sunday was contacted by eagle-eyed Francis McDonnell, who spotted this sign error in Tennyson Road.

If you approach the hill from the top, you are informed of a 13 per cent gradient but, according to a different sign at the bottom, the angle is only eight per cent.

Mr McDonnell, who contacted LoS after reading how the council had incorrectly spelt Odeon as 'Odean' on a commemorative Fab Four brick in Park Street Maze, said: "Well it used to be described

GOING DOWN:
Descent = 13%

GOING UP:
Ascent = 8%

as one in eight which converts to 12.5 per cent or, rounded up to the nearest whole number, 13 per cent, so the sign you see on the way down is fine, but the one on the way up has been converted wrongly.

"I hope the council will put this right in the near future."

A council spokeswoman said:

"The correct sign is the one reading 13 per cent as that is the gradient of the hill. We believe the error would have occurred when the sign now showing 8 per cent was installed as it is likely that this replaced a sign reading 1:8 which was the old format.

"The mistake will be corrected in due course."

Irreplaceable wedding snaps go missing in lost camera

A BRIDESMAID has lost a camera containing precious pictures from her best friend's wedding.

Around 150 photographs were taken on the pink and white Sony Cybershot camera throughout the day on Saturday, but it was misplaced during the early hours of Sunday morning. Despite calls to the Red Lion pub at Market Hill, Luton, where the celebrations continued, the item has still not turned up and its owner's family are desperate to be reunited with the sentimental pictures of the special occasion.

The photos captured the early part of the bride getting ready, leaving the house, the wedding itself, the reception and the celebrations into the evening.

Anyone who knows of the camera's whereabouts can contact Luton on Sunday's newsdesk on 01582 707707.

FOUND: Some of the boxes of cigarettes and tobacco discovered by HM Revenue & Customs

Man caught with fake fags and baccy worth £120k gets suspended sentence

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A SMUGGLER was caught after illegally bringing more than £120,000 fake cigarettes and tobacco from China.

Zhia Han Jan, of The Green, Luton, was caught red-handed by HM Revenue & Customs officers as he arrived at a storage unit in Luton in his BMW with 18,400 cigarettes and 80Kg of tobacco in the back.

They arrested the 26-year-old and inside the unit at Cosgrove Way Business Park found 12,000 cigarettes along with empty hand-rolling tobacco pouches.

When Jan's fingerprints were taken, they matched those of Hon Pong Cheng, which was an alias he used. Cheng was suspected of involvement in an earlier attempt to smuggle hand rolling tobacco through Felixstowe in 2010, when more than 410Kg of tobacco was discovered hidden in a container load of footstools from China.

The total revenue evaded was estimated as being £120,000.

At Ipswich Crown Court on Tuesday, Jan - as he is usually known - was sentenced to 12 months in prison, suspended for two years, and given a community service order to carry out 200 hours of unpaid work having pleaded guilty to two counts of smuggling at an earlier hearing.

Jennie Kendall, of HMRC, said: "The illegal tobacco trade has a huge effect on our community.

"The criminals involved are not concerned who they sell to and often supply to children and young people. We have active and effective teams of officers operating across the region to stamp out this criminal activity and seek to prosecute those responsible."

Job loss costs hit police force hard

BY HAZEL SLADE
editor@lsmmedia.co.uk

A CASH-STRAPPED police force spent more than £300,000 on making just 14 staff redundant in the last year.

Figures released under the Freedom of Information act show that the largest severance packages paid out by Bedfordshire Police between August 2010 and August 2011 was £42,000 - handed to an employee who had worked for the authority for 32 years.

Other payouts included £41,000 to someone who had worked for the team for 18 years, £37,000 for a member who had done 26 years service, £28,000 for an employee of 38 years and £26,000 to a person who worked for Bedfordshire Police for 28 years.

The figures - which also show that 48 staff were hired by the force in the last financial year - do not include police officers as, by law, they cannot be made redundant.

However, in the last financial year 89 civilians left the Bedfordshire Police payroll.

And 63 police officers also moved on - including former Chief Constable Gillian Parker - while just 37 were hired.

A Bedfordshire Police spokeswoman said: "The force continues to redeploy staff into vacant posts where it can, to avoid compulsory redundancies and retain staff with valuable skills and corporate knowledge."

"The force acknowledges the unprecedented financial climate, however, to achieve an overall reduction in police staff costs there have to be some one-off costs up front."

"Through these it is anticipated the force will make the longer term savings required as well as mitigate the risk of making further compulsory redundancies."

Downloadable discounts to boost town shopping

AN internet discount scheme offering savings to shoppers will provide a boost to Dunstable's struggling town centre.

Dunstable Town Council has again teamed up with businesses to promote Shop Dunstable (www.shopdunstable.co.uk) which from Saturday will see 14 new offers including money off jewellery, clothing, drink, and even glasses.

If that isn't enough, for the first time ever, Shop Dunstable also includes a parking refund scheme which entitles users to receive their 50p parking fee back when they spend a minimum of £5 in participating shops. Shops include Clowns, The Flower Corner, Priory House and Regal Crafts.

Businesses can sign up to the scheme free of charge and members of the public will not pay a penny to register for the special offers. The town council is operating the scheme to support businesses and provide better value for those who shop within the town.

By using the downloadable vouchers, residents and visitors can get a great deal on shopping and leisure activities, and also support Dunstable's businesses, which the town council says is 'key to supporting the economy and for the future of the town'.

A novel way of getting 'banned' in other places

BOOKS cause controversy for a number of reasons, be it because they feature witchcraft, are against the political views of a country, or because they are too 'explicit'.

But some of those books will be ones you will have never have thought would incite any kind of backlash.

Did you know, for example, that in many parts of America, and some Christian schools in the UK, the worldwide phenomenon that is JK Rowling's Harry Potter is not available as it 'promotes witchcraft'?

Some may see this as completely bizarre, others out there may agree to the censorship. And that is what Luton Library is hoping to open up to debate.

Over the next eight weeks, Luton Central Library, in St George's Square, will be featuring four books, of more than 100, which have have been banned across the world.

Those books start this week with the teen novel Angus, Thongs and Full Frontal Snogging by Louise Rennison. Its content, a frank discussion on boys, and an insight into the psyche of a teenage girl, has led to it being censored in US schools.

Following on from that will be Persepolis, a comic by Marjan

MORE than 100 banned books, from home and abroad, are now available for Lutonians to read and debate.

SOPHIE SCOTT spoke to Luton Central Library's senior librarian, Andrew Bond, and adult services manager, Fiona Marriot, about what will be available over the next eight weeks.

Satrap, which deals with the author's experience of growing up in Iran during the revolution. It is banned in that country.

Tying in with Black History Month in October will be James Baldwin's African-American novel Go Tell It On The Mountain which was banned in America because of its themes of violence, sex and profanity.

Hoping to appeal to the Irish demographic in Luton is Borstal Boy by Brendan Behan, a book banned in Ireland, which is an insight to 1950s Ireland.

The idea is for people to come in, take the book out (for free), and start a discussion. Some of you might love one book, while another hates it, but that is what Andrew Bond and Fiona Marriot hope happens.

Fiona explained: "It's a way of getting people into reading and reading things that they never thought of or always intended to but never got round to it. It will introduce people to new books and some things that they never knew, maybe politically, or books they have never heard of."

She added that it is interesting that some of the books share some of the same political ideas of those people involved in the Arab Spring, although not dealing with that specifically or in the same region geographically.

Andrew added: "What I love about one book that was banned is Animal Farm by George Orwell, the Americans banned it because they thought it showed communism, while the Soviets banned it because they thought it showed totalitarianism."

"We certainly have, as librarians, a professional role against censorship."

"We did this last year, but there weren't as many books, and it was interesting to see adults coming along and seeing picture books for three or four year olds and wanting to know why that was banned. It just causes people to think." Fiona explained how times have changed in this country. She said: "I think the British have come a long way since Lady Chatterley's Lover [a novel by DH Lawrence which was challenged in the courts under the Obscenity Law in 1960] and we are a lot more tolerant of ideas in books."

All of the material on the 'banned book' list will be available at the library. There will be a 'wall' in the library where you can post a note as to whether you think the book should be banned or if you are a fan.

To take part in the discussion, visit Luton Central Library, which is part of Luton Culture, or go online to www.lutonlibraries.co.uk, where you can also download e-books in the 'Do It Online' section. The library's Facebook and Twitter pages will also encourage debate and can be found at www.facebook.com or www.twitter.com/lutonlibraries

Deal done to aid residents in sheltered housing

A NEW care provider has been appointed to support residents at an extra care sheltered housing scheme.

Central Bedfordshire Council awarded Creative Support the contract for Red House in Houghton

Regis after it was approved by the authority's executive committee.

It was officially confirmed this week following a formal procurement process to finalise the new contract. Cllr Carole Hegley said:

"This initiative was proposed to deliver efficiency savings without compromising care delivery at the four courts and we are confident that the new care providers will provide the same level of high quality care and support services. The hand-over period, from our current in-house carers to the new care providers, is likely to vary between each court and should be completed by the end of November."

Free alarms will help to beat the burglars

BY LUI STRACCIA

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

ELDERLY and vulnerable residents will get alarms installed for free to protect their homes from burglars.

Charity Age Concern is working with home security experts Friedland to put in the systems as UK Home Security Week arrived in Luton yesterday.

The idea is to raise awareness of the measures people can take to reduce the risk of crime in their homes.

A report released by Friedland shows that this project is essential to home protection, with results revealing that only four in ten homes are protected with a burglar alarm, leaving almost 60 per cent prime targets for raiders.

Jonathan Lim, security expert at Friedland, said: "Luton is setting a great example by actively addressing the issue of home security and we hope other regions will follow this lead."

"The good news is that security measures don't have to be big steps.

"Simply cutting back trees and shrubs to remove potential hiding places for burglars or installing alarm systems, that can be as cheap as £100, are good value deterrents in the long run."

"They mean that homeowners are far less likely to ever have to physically protect their property."

The 'Friedland UK Home Security' report also found that two-thirds of households are expecting a rise in crime due to recently announced police budget cuts, so it is more essential than ever that homeowners have the correct security elements in place such as security lighting and alarm systems to protect their homes.

Betty McKean, who as a Luton resident is taking part in the scheme, said: "I have window and door locks but I don't think that's enough to stop burglars."

"I'm hoping that the alarm will work as a deterrent as I do believe what they say - older people are the easiest targets and so we do need protection from these people."

"This alarm will make me feel safer in my own home and that is a very important thing for people living alone."

OPEN DAY

WEDNESDAY 12TH OCTOBER 2011

At Manshead School we work together with students and the home to be 'in search of personal excellence'. We provide an environment in which students will develop and gain the skills and qualifications they will need to meet the challenges of a quickly changing world.

Our personalised curriculum allows all students to achieve well in their examinations. In 2011 78% of students gained 5 GCSE passes at C or above and 56% of students achieved 5 GCSE passes at C or above including English and Maths. We continue to get excellent results at A level. We achieved a 99% pass rate this year with very good student progression to University.

We hope that prospective parents will be able to attend our open evening and open day to see the school in action and the excellent facilities available to students.

Open Evening will be held on Wednesday 5th October from 6.30 - 9pm. This is an opportunity for prospective students and their parents to take a guided tour of the school, meet a range of subject staff and current students, talk to Governors and hear a presentation from the Headteacher and students. Presentations will be held at 6.30, 6.50 and 7.10 giving plenty of time to tour the school. There is no need to book for open evening.

Open Day will be held on Wednesday 12th October and is a chance to look around school whilst it is in action. Tours will start at 9 and 11.20 am. There will be a brief talk before students take small groups of prospective parents and their children around the site. There will be a chance to speak to the Headteacher and other members of the Leadership Team at the end of the tour.

Please telephone Sue Wilson 01582 679 400 or email office@mansheadschool.co.uk to book your tour.

On the lookout for Luton's achievers

OUR community is full of ordinary people who do extraordinary things.

Very often their efforts go unrecognised and unrewarded.

Luton's Best Awards 2011 once again aims to put that right by honouring the best in our town and the contribution that these people make to our lives and our community.

Three of this year's awards focus on those who have made real achievements in their lives.

We are looking for Luton's Young Achiever, sponsored by Barnfield Federation.

This award will seek to recognise an outstanding effort and levels of achievement by a young person aged 20 or under.

Last year's winner Kelly Alston was an excellent example of the sort of person we are looking for. Despite a very tough and challenging childhood Kelly has made great achievements against the odds both in her personal and academic life and she continues to achieve and strive.

Luton's Adult Achiever,

WE WON: Last year's Luton's Best Leisure and Culture category winners High Town Art For All sponsored by University of Bedfordshire, seeks to recognise an individual over the age of 21 who continues to achieve great things in any area of their life.

Last year Sabbath Shazia scooped this award with her incredible achievement in juggling her studies, two jobs, two businesses and still finding time to help raise more than £100,000 for a range of appeals to help both the community and charity organisations across the world despite having to cope with Crohn's Disease.

The Lifetime Achievement Award, sponsored by Volker Highways, is to recognise an individual whose achievements have been far-reaching in the community.

The 2010 winner was Richard

Turney a police officer of more than 30 years who devoted himself to working at a 'grass roots' level in partnership with local communities.

Nominations for all 16 categories are open until Monday, November 7.

For full details of the awards, the criteria and how to enter visit www.luton.gov.uk/lutonsbestawards or contact Sinead McNamara on 01582 546265 or email sinead.mcnamara@luton.gov.uk

Alternatively pick up a leaflet from the Town Hall, libraries and public areas across the town.

The awards will take place at Luton Hoo on Thursday, December 8. All nominators will be entered into a draw to win two tickets to this prestigious event.

A man's epic journey to get back to his family

THEATRE

THE MAN WITH THE LUGGAGE

The Hat Factory, Luton
Thursday, 7.30pm

THIS week leading theatre company Trestle and the director of emerging company Blindeye, come to The Hat Factory to collaborate on the UK premiere of The Man with the Luggage.

The story traces a man's journey home after becoming a refugee during a war in his homeland.

We follow Damir, as he arrives at a train station and starts his tortuous, bizarre, and often hilarious journey back home, to his village, to his house, and to his loved ones.

On the way, he is forced to take any means of transport available, from a bus, to a motorbike and side-car, to a solitary rollerskate.

Through the people he meets along the way, he discovers the true horror of the last ten years, and the divides that are still apparent between different people and neighbouring communities.

Contemporary stories of migration and repatriation create an invigorating, visually stunning, and often very funny performance.

Make sure you don't miss this, compelling, highly charged theatrical spectacular.

Tickets cost £9 each, £7 for concessions, £5 for those with a Culture Card and just £2 for anyone under 26. Why not make a night of it and book a pre-theatre meal for just £6 (see website for menu)?

You can book your tickets online at www.thehatfactory.org or call the box office on 01582 878100 or 547474.

An utterly storming live show that you would Dread to miss

MUSIC

DREADZONE

Charlie Browns, Midland Road, Luton
Friday, 8pm

DREADZONE, the fervently followed British institution and original pioneers of UK bass culture, have announced a major UK tour to support the recently released compendium of their musical story so far - 'The Good, The Bad And The Dread'.

Still going strong after 17 years, Dreadzone have carved a large niche and cult following. Hit records, critical acclaim and a huge, devoted fan base are theirs, due in part to their utterly storming live shows. The all-killer-no-filler 16 tracks collate the many highlights of 'the Zone's' output to date - a coherent and still fresh-sounding body of work.

Dreadzone deal in accessible yet credible club sounds with pop nous, referencing everyone from Woody Guthrie and Max Romeo to John Holt and classic films.

They also like to wander into uncharted territory, melding Celtic, Jamaican and Asian influences to their riddles and samples, thus turning out unique, quirky gems like 'Captain Dread' and 'Little Britain'.

Their dubwise beats and bottom end, often adorned with the unmistakably dulcet tones of Earl 16 are a product of the cut-and-paste magic nature of the ever-morphing world of dance music.

Other collaborators who've passed through the house of dread include cultural figurehead Don Letts, Melanie Blatt and Alison Goldfrapp. John Peel was a big fan of the band too. He included five Dreadzone tracks in his festive 50 and chose their 360 LP as one of his top ten albums of all time. Ironically that release hasn't been available since the closing of Alan McGee's iconic label Creation records, to which they were signed.

Dreadzone are: Greg Dread (beats and electronics) Leo Williams (bass) MC Spee (MC), Earl 16 (vocals) Chris Compton (guitar) and Chris Oldfield (technology).

Tickets cost £15 and are available by calling Charlie Browns on 01582 876391.

Breakfast club

– with Heart FM's Stuart and Natalie

WE'VE had a run of big stars on the show, with their new movie releases.

Sarah Jessica Parker has a new film out, called I Don't Know How She Does It, based on the famous book by Alison Pearson, about the life of Kate Reddy, a working mum, juggling everything from life, kids and to being taken seriously at work.

Our showbiz editor Charlie caught up with SJP who apparently doesn't like just being called Sarah. You need to call her SJP or Sarah Jessica! In the film she stars with Pierce Brosnan and told us what it was like, she said: "I got to hang out with him briefly in Mars Attack a few years ago but my head had been removed and I was a Chihuahua not nearly as romantic or satisfying. "This time we were together for three weeks. "He is dangled in front of my character like a piece of temptation and who better to distract you from your marriage than Pierce Brosnan."

Of course we were also keen to hear how Carrie was doing, although it was strange how Sarah Jessica talked about her alter ego. "Carrie's in New York City. I haven't talked to her for a while but I know Big has been travelling for a while and she's been seeing the ladies a lot and they seem to be very well."

Slightly worrying...and it got us thinking would there be a third movie?

SJP told us: "There's not been a real conversation about it."

"I had a casual one a few years ago and I'm sort of privy to a story idea but I think the timing isn't right so I think not in the near future but maybe not in the horribly distant future."

■ Stuart and Natalie present Heart Breakfast Monday to Friday 6am-10am on Heart 96.6FM

String quartet play with 'imagination and deep insight'

MUSIC

PRIMROSE PIANO QUARTET

Luton Library Theatre
Tomorrow, 7.45pm

MUSIC on Mondays gets off to a flying start to the season with a return visit of the Primrose Piano Quartet (pictured), who played so impressively two seasons ago that an early return was inevitable.

Since their debut in 2004, they have earned themselves a great reputation as live performers, recording artistes and popularisers of British chamber music, which so often suffers from neglect; they have been described as providing "inspired music played with complete control, imagination, and deep insight", which bodes well for the concert.

Their programme for tomorrow night is made up of a mixture of styles and nationalities. The concert will open with one of the Beethoven piano quartets, and moves on to the string trio of Hungarian composer Erno Dohnanyi – a musician who is remembered as much for his skill as a pianist as for his compositions, and who attracted the admiration of Brahms for his early works. The concert continues with a performance of Frank Bridge's Phantasy quartet, a work which they have recorded and been awarded five stars in the Classic FM magazine review. The concert will then conclude with Schumann's piano quartet, a piece of enduring and richly-deserved popularity.

Full details of the season, along with several offers for ticket price reductions can be found on the website – www.lutonmusic.org.uk

Tickets are also available from the Luton Library Theatre box office (01582 547474) or on the door.

Puppet man Paul is back

Paul Zerdin and cheeky Sam

THEATRE

PAUL ZERDIN

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
Friday, at 8pm

WITH more than three million hits on YouTube and guest appearances on Comedy Rocks and the Royal Variety Performance, Paul Zerdin is, without doubt, one of the most talented ventriloquists in the world.

Following two sold-out years at the prestigious Edinburgh Fringe Festival, Zerdin embarked on his first UK tour in 2010 and this year sees him return to the live arena this autumn, taking Sponge Fest to previously uncharted venues.

With his fresh twist on this traditional comedy art, Paul Zerdin is constantly breaking new ground in his shows which seamlessly blur performance with reality.

Zerdin uses his ventriloquism skills to such effect that his audience play an integral part in the show, working alongside his puppet characters – the pre-pubescent, cheeky Sam, the belligerent OAP Albert and the precocious infant Baby.

The first ventriloquist to ever headline the Comedy Store, Paul Zerdin honed his skills from his teens, studying a book written by the late Ray Alan and working with The Jim Henson Company on the movie Muppet Treasure Island.

With his winning combination of charm, impeccable comic timing and continual audience interaction there will not be a dry eye in the house.

Paul Zerdin always delivers a 'set closer' that involves some serious audience participation – who knows what he will have in store for audiences around the UK this year in his ever-evolving Sponge Fest show.

Tickets cost £15 from the box office on 01582 602080.

For full details contact the development direct or visit our website at www.millerhomes.co.uk/homebuy. **Home Exchange is subject to availability, status and eligibility. MiSWAP is the name of the standard Miller Homes Home Exchange scheme, consequently the swap would be a Home Exchange. MiSWAP does not guarantee a like for like exchange. ***The MiFamily Deposit scheme is development and plot specific and cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer. This payment may be subject to income tax. The recipient of the interest is responsible for declaring and paying any tax that may be due on this payment. Interest will be calculated as a simple interest payment therefore is not compound interest. Miller Homes reserves the right to withdraw the MiFamily Deposit scheme at any time. Scheme provided by Miller Homes Limited of Miller House, 2 Lochside View, Edinburgh Park, Edinburgh EH12 9DH. †£99 reservation fee is only available if you reserve between 1st September and 2nd October 2011. All offers are plot and development specific and are subject to Miller Homes standard terms and conditions. Miller Homes reserve the right to withdraw our offers at any time. Prices and availability correct at time of going to print. CGI represents an artist's impression.

SUSAN MARY SANDERS

23/01/48 to 23/09/10
We little knew that morning, that you'd decided not to stay,
In tears we saw you sinking,
We watched you fade away
Then we saw you sleeping, peacefully from pain, We would not wish you back to suffer so much again.
Mum, we love and miss you
In every single way
And though we cannot see you you're with us every day.
Our Love Always
Sharon, Annette, Paul, David, Ella, Abby,
Joshua & Grace Susan

ALBERT GARNER

15th September
2009.
It's been two years since we lost you and it seems too long since you have gone.
God has got you in his keeping and we keep you in our hearts forever.
Love from Sandra,
Jill, Wendy and Denise.
He was a Dad, Grandad, Great Grandad and friend to many, the most lovely person you could meet.
A new addition to the family another

A REAL CAREER PATH

by Tom Lawrence, Taylors Bletchley

"I joined Taylors Estate Agents as a Sales Negotiator in the Bletchley branch back in 2006 with retail background as my only experience. I really wanted to join a company that trains and develops their staff, rewards hard work so it seemed the obvious choice. Within two years I was promoted to Senior Negotiator and then Marketing Manager of the Flagship branch in Central Milton Keynes".

"Benefits including a company car and excellent earnings easily in excess of £30,000 were enjoyed in my early years and now 5 years later with two more promotions I am now a Senior Manager back in the office where it all began. Unlike some people, I thoroughly enjoy helping our clients, hitting targets and striving for more rewards which are endless at this company".

If you are not frightened of hard work, long hours, and a real career path with excellent financial rewards you should email me today on manager.bletchley@taylorsestateagents.co.uk or call me on 01908 370861 for a friendly discussion about your potential career.

Experience is not essential but a positive enthusiastic approach and the ability to communicate a high level are crucial. So, if this sounds too good to be true then give me a call, you have absolutely nothing to lose but a career to gain!

Business Development Manager

Office based Advertising Sales Advisor

We're looking for a highly motivated individual to work on our very busy recruitment section selling jobs related advertising to existing and new customers across Beds, Bucks and Northants.

This role involves talking to local business people about their staff recruitment advertising in print and online on a weekly basis.

Experience in advertising sales is not necessary (but is helpful!), but the ability to talk to, and deal with local businesses at both Managing Director and grass roots level is essential. Candidates must have an excellent telephone manner and strong customer service skills.

You'll also need to be confident, outgoing and organised working in a small, friendly team from our offices close to Willen Lake in Milton Keynes. You'll also be able to cold call prospective customers in a professional and persuasive manner.

We offer genuine and realistic opportunities for further career advancement as well as the following benefits;

- Salary £13,000 - £16,000 basic (dependent on skills and experience)
- Generous bonus structure that offers the realistic opportunity to earn £16k-£20k.
- 25 days holiday per year
- Regular training
- Contributory pension and healthcare after qualifying period

If you have the skills, drive and experience to help us further develop our recruitment advertising in a busy working environment please email your CV with covering letter to Marie.Baker@mk-news.co.uk

It is the company's policy to employ the best qualified personnel and provide opportunity for the advancement of employees including promotion and training and not discriminate against any person because of sex, race, pregnancy, disability, marital or family status, ages, sexual orientation, religious beliefs or trade union memberships.

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (STREET PARKING PLACES) (AMENDMENT NO. BK) ORDER 2011

NOTICE is hereby given that Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, proposes to make the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended).

The effect of the Order will be:

1. Revoke No Waiting Monday-Saturday 8am-6pm as detailed in schedule 1
2. Introduce No Waiting at Anytime as detailed in schedule 2
3. Revoke existing matchday restrictions as detailed in schedule 3
4. Introduce No Waiting Monday-Saturday 8am-6pm as detailed in schedule 4

A copy of the draft Order, together with a plan showing the roads and lengths of roads affected and a Statement of the Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order may be inspected at the Parking Shop at the Town Hall, Luton (public entrance in Gordon Street) between 9.00am and 4.30pm Monday to Friday.

If you wish to object to the proposed Orders you should write to me at the address below setting out the grounds of your objection by 17th October 2011 quoting reference H/P1331 25th September 2011

Luton Borough Council
THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (VARIOUS ROADS)
(TEMPORARY ROAD CLOSURES) (No. 18) ORDER 2011

NOTICE is hereby given that Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, intends to make the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 as amended.

The Order will come into operation on 24th October 2011, and will cease operation on 24th April 2013 or when the proposed works have been completed, whichever is the earlier.

The effect of the Order will allow the Council to close to traffic the road and length of road in the Schedule below. The Order is intended to create a window for the works to be done and it is anticipated that the works will be completed over a period within the dates and times described in the Schedule below. Specific dates will be signed locally. The Order will therefore be in operation when signs are displayed.

The purpose of the Order is to enable carriageway resurfacing works to be carried out

Access will be maintained as best as possible to properties whilst such works are being carried out and diversions for traffic will be marked by signs.

THE BOROUGH OF LUTON (PROHIBITION AND RESTRICTION OF WAITING AND LOADING)
(AMENDMENT NO. BJ) ORDER 2011. THE BOROUGH OF LUTON
(STREET PARKING PLACES)
(AMENDMENT NO. BJ) ORDER 2011

NOTICE is hereby given that Luton Borough Council, the Highway Authority for the said Borough, proposes to make the above Order under the relevant provisions of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984 (as amended) and all other enabling powers.

The general effect of the Order will be:-

1. To replace 3 on street parking bays with a No Waiting Monday to Saturday 8am-6pm restriction as described in the Schedule below.

The Purpose of the Order is to revoke the on-street parking bay fronting the new development to allow vehicular access to the property.

A copy of the draft Order, together with a plan showing the roads and lengths of roads affected and a Statement of the Council's reasons for proposing to make the Order may be inspected at the Parking Shop at the Town Hall, Luton (public entrance on Gordon Street) between 9.00am and 4.30pm Monday to Friday.

If you wish to object to the proposed Orders you should write to me at the address below setting out the grounds of your objection by 17th October 2011 quoting reference SG P1493 25th September 2011

Cain's exit and Wilshere's success highlights the pros and cons of homegrown talent

FOOTBALL

THE emergence of Jack Wilshere at the highest level of football is one of the reasons why it was right for Luton Town to sell youth player Michael Cain to Leicester City, according to Gary Brabin.

The England and Arsenal midfielder began his career as a kid at Luton before moving onto the Premier League giants and this week the Hatters sold Cain to the Foxes for a five-figured sum.

Asked if the success of Luton youngsters was a double-edged sword, Brabin said: "It goes both ways. Sometimes you've got to keep hold of your homegrown talent and let them blossom with you. Sometimes, it is equally important to sell some on.

"It is not until you see the likes of Jack Wilshere playing for Arsenal that people sit up and take notice of what homegrown talent there is at Luton."

But Brabin admits that there is a fine balance between keeping and moving young talent on.

"I think there's got to be a good mixture. It is important that now and again we do sell them on if it is to the right club, for the right fee and so it suits all parties," said Brabin.

"You don't want to be selling every single one of your players. It is nice, on a Saturday, to go and watch homegrown players play."

Nevertheless, after selling David Moli to Liverpool and Cauley Woodrow to Fulham, the Luton chief believes that the sale of Cain was good business.

"He is a really good footballer and is a handful," the manager said of Cain.

"We knew a lot of teams were interested in him and I know there was a little fight and people behind the scenes here worked fantastically well to keep hold of him.

"I think there was a bit of a free-for-all at one stage when people thought they could take our players for nothing.

"People here have worked really hard to make sure that didn't happen.

"We want to help players progress and hopefully be part of Luton Town's success. If not, they can help the club by going on further and making the club a few bob. The player progresses as well."

Burford and Dada claim Euro honours

POWERLIFTING

A POWERLIFTING duo from Dunstable came back from the European Drug Free Powerlifting Championships in Estonia with two golds and a silver medal.

Gary Dada and Chris Burford of Burn Fitness Gym only took up the sport two years ago but were invited to represent Great Britain to compete for European honours. Dada won gold in the masters one class benchpress with a 205kg lift while Burford won silver with a 200kg effort.

He also won the deadlift, picking up 300kg to claim gold.

The pair, who train together, are now getting ready for the All English Championships next month, which act as a qualifying event for the British Championships.

No joy for Luton as Mateai bosses Tring victory

RUGBY UNION

NATIONAL DIVISION THREE LONDON & SOUTH EAST

TRING 41
LUTON RUGBY 20

LUTON's wretched run of form continued yesterday afternoon with this loss away to Tring.

The match started brightly for Luton and they scored a try in the third minute through second-row Karl Rodell, with Jake Harris converting.

But Tring got on the scoresheet nine minutes later when Liam Channel went over for their opening try. The conversion was subsequently missed but a penalty goal on 18 minutes from Tom Newton put the score at 8-7 in Tring's favour.

Left-winger Chris Snelling then restored the Luton advantage ten minutes later with a try but the away side failed to convert.

And this proved to be costly as Tring's William Mateai scored the first try of his hat-trick and Newton converted to make it 15-12 to the home side at half-time.

The second period started badly for Luton and Newton popped up again, this time to score and convert his try.

Harris then hit a penalty goal and Snelling scored his second try but Luton failed to take full advantage with another missed conversion.

This acted as a wake up call for Tring who replied through a Channel try and Newton conversion.

At this stage, Luton considered the 29-20 scoreline to be a fair reflection on the game.

But Mateai had other designs and completed his hat-trick, with Newton adding one of the extras

YORK 3

Ex-Hatter

BY IAN RYAN

ian.ryan@lutononsunday.com

BOOTHAM Crescent has been a hard place for Luton Town to come to in recent seasons. So bad in fact, that the Luton defence didn't turn up for the opening 45 minutes of Hatters' 3-0 defeat at York.

Ashley Chambers' early strike started the woe before former Hatter Jason Walker showed his ex-employees why they made a mistake letting him go in the summer with a finish of pure quality to make it two.

Walker has reignited his career since moving away from Kenilworth Road, notching up seven goals prior to yesterday, but this was his day to shine and the striker had a massive hand in York's third as his cross was turned in by Chambers.

A shambolic Luton were outplayed from start to finish as they slumped to their first defeat of the season in a match that only saw them fire four shots on target.

The goal sparked York into life and Jamie Reed latched on to Will Antwi's weak header back to lob an indecisive and hesitant Tyler but, fortunately for Town, Reed's effort bounced the wrong side of the post.

Antwi was having a nightmare start at the back which soon got worse as Reed once again picked up from one of the defender's many mistakes – this time a slip – to go one-on-one with Tyler. But after taking an age to eventually pick his spot, the winger shot straight into Tyler's legs.

Chambers was next to let the defender off the hook after blasting high and wide from Antwi's equally poor spooned clearance.

Then Walker made his point, shooting on the turn to fire home from a ricochet and silence the Hatters fans behind the goal. The finish was perfect, a low drive beyond the reach of Tyler, and was followed by a subdued celebration in respect of his old team.

Luton only had themselves to blame and it wasn't until the 38th minute that Stuart Fleetwood fired wide the Hatters' first attempt on goal. Prior to that, the only work Michael Ingham was required to do was to routinely make sure that James Dance's cross-cum-shot didn't cross his goal line in the seventh minute. Other than that, he was purely a spectator.

Walker then inflicted further misery on his former team on the stroke of half-time with an inch-perfect cross for Chambers to volley home his second of the match and present Luton with a mountainous second-half struggle.

And that struggle could have got even steeper within minutes of the restart had Chambers' low drive not marginally crept past Tyler's right post.

Jamie Hand should have decreased the deficit minutes later after Aaron O'Connor, thrown into the mix along with Adam Watkins at half-time to inspire a Luton comeback, pulled the ball back to the midfielder – but Hand blazed over unchallenged from 12 yards.

Walker then came inches away from his second after a curling effort from 35 yards clipped the upright.

Keith Keane, who started at right back, seemed to provide more stability to the Hatters midfield when he switched positions with Dance but Luton were far too casual at the back against much quicker York City attackers.

And frustrations were starting to show as first Stuart Fleetwood, and then Hand made strong challenges that didn't meet with referee Tony Harrington's approval.

Luton were now however enjoying a few more excursions in and around the City penalty area with a driving run by Jake Howells that resulted in the youngster dragging his shot wide and a headed effort from Jamie Hand coming close to reducing the arrears. But there was always a danger whenever Chambers and Walker had the ball and the latter came close after 69 minutes after beating his marker to fire Chambers' low cross just over the bar.

It was York that continued to look the stronger as the game headed into the final ten minutes with McLaughlin firing over from close-range as Luton looked beaten with a half-hearted shot from Hand the best Luton could muster as the minutes ticked down.

Jets bring down AFC as they strive for late winner

FA VASE SECOND QUALIFYING ROUND

AFC DUNSTABLE are out of the FA Vase after conceding in the last minute away at Oxhey Jets, losing 3-2.

The home side took the lead in the 35th minute but AFC were back on level terms just five minutes later when Kyle Lincoln followed up his team-mate's shot and tapped in the rebound after the Oxhey keeper had parried.

A controversial penalty was awarded to the Jets when Lincoln fouled in the box, which restored Oxhey's lead.

JJ Billy then headed in a Jamie Warne cross to make it 2-2. AFC went in search of a winner but, from a corner of their own, Oxhey countered and scored with just seconds to go.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE PREMIER DIVISION

IT was the battle of unbeaten teams at Creasey Park with DUNSTABLE TOWN coming out of the match with their record still intact after beating Royston Town 3-1.

Royston started better and scored in the 15th minute after Dean Brennan's misplaced header was punished. But he made up for his error as he provided the assist for a Joseph Bruce goal to bring them back on level terms.

Grant Carney then gave Dunstable the lead after just coming off the bench. And a fine long-distance strike from Nathan Frater sealed the win as Town's fine run continues.

EVO-STIK DIVISION ONE CENTRAL

CHALFONT ST PETER 1
BARTON ROVERS 0

BARTON ROVERS missed a penalty and had a man sent off as they lost away at Chalfont St Peter.

Both sides exchanged early chances as they looked to break the deadlock. It took until the 44th minute for Chalfont to take the lead as they were left frustrated by Barton who played very well in the first half.

Rovers should have levelled when they were awarded a penalty but Sam Spencer missed his spot kick. And it got worse for Barton when George Brinkmann saw red.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

CRAWLEY GREEN 2
LONDON LIONS 2

CRAWLEY GREEN conceded after just 14 seconds but fought back to draw against London Lions.

They were behind immediately from kick-off as Chris Harvey failed to clear. Matt Baldry equalised from a Craig Savage throw-in and Sam Peverall put the home side ahead before half-time. Lions equalised shortly after the break.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION TWO

A BRACE from Aaron Lewis continued THE 61 FC'S unbeaten run and gave them a 3-1 away victory over Pitstone and Irvinghoe.

The 61 FC got off to a quick start with Lewis converting a cross in the seventh minute but Pitstone hit back on 20 minutes to level the score.

However, a fine solo run from James Potter restored the advantage just before half-time and Lewis sealed the win with an 88th minute strike.

Elsewhere, Stefan Tracey missed a penalty as

TOTTERNHOE were held 1-1 at home to Haye Leys United.

Tracey gave Totternhoe the lead on 66 minutes but the home side were undone by a Gary Simpson own goal.

CADDINGTON drew 1-1 at Old Bradwell United with both teams scoring set-piece goals.

Daniel Flemming's tenth minute diving header was cancelled out by a late Old Bradwell equaliser.

And finally, KENT ATHLETIC thrashed MK Wanderers 5-1 to make it two wins on the trot.

Brabin could see York loss coming

BY IAN RYAN

ian.ryan@lutononsunday.com

GARY BRABIN has revealed that he expected his side to leak goals ahead of their 3-0 thumping at York City after his team had conceded 'silly' ones in recent matches.

Following the defeat, Luton lost their unbeaten run in the league and top spot as they slipped to sixth place and out of the play-off places.

But it was the way in which Luton performed which really vexed the Hatters boss and with Alex Lawless now sidelined with a broken hand, the manager has a growing injury list to contend with.

Brabin said, "I've seen this coming before today.

"I've mentioned that we've conceded some silly goals and I have been a bit worried about that.

"We've come up against a side that are on the front foot with something to prove.

"I'm not looking too much at league tables but I am looking at performances and, at the moment, I have concerns with the goals we're conceding.

"The injuries are creeping up now with Alex Lawless' looking a serious one.

"That is alarming and worrying and we're just going to have to regroup now and concentrate on the positives.

"We've been unbeaten, that's our first defeat this season but there are a lot of pluses.

"We know we've got a hell of a lot of improvements. We've just got to get back

PLENTY TO THINK ABOUT:
Manager Gary Brabin

at it, get back in training work on things and just leave the things that we have been doing. It's only a week ago we were playing really well and we were climbing the table and then two very indifferent performances away from home and all of the sudden we're on the back foot again.

"But we've just got to pick ourselves up from this and go on another run."

County football race equality group backs chief exec decision

FOOTBALL

A MEMBER of the Bedfordshire Football Association Race Equality Group (FA REG) has backed the county authority for 'trying to unite the football family' in the wake of a 'racist' email forwarded by chief executive Peter Brown.

In a meeting this week the local FA council refused to accept Mr Brown's resignation in favour of keeping him in the role until a replacement.

Beds FA REG member and chairman of the Black and Minority Ethnic (BME) football forum, Abu Nasir, has called the decision a satisfactory outcome.

The recruitment process is now set to commence as soon as possible with the intention of having a new CEO in place by January.

In a statement, Mr Nasir, from Luton, said: 'I have had numerous calls from people around the country who were very upset by the email and wanted Peter to be dismissed.

'I was also under pressure to resign had the Beds FA not dismissed Peter as a way of protesting against racism.

'However, as a member of the FA Race Equality Group and an advisor I would like to state that I am content with the outcome and thank the chairman for trying to unite the football family in Bedfordshire during this difficult period for all.

'I am glad we have an outcome and hope it is satisfactory for all who are involved in football.

'I will continue to work hard to engage all members of the football community both locally and nationally to work collectively, openly and transparently in all football matters in the future and ensure all sections of the community are continuously engaged.

'I hope we can progress together in the future and incidents like this do not divide our community.

'I thank Peter for his hard work over the last 40 years and hope this incident does not undermine some of the positive work we have been doing in the county over the years.

'Unfortunately, Luton is in the national press again for the wrong reasons but I assure you the community is united in progressing football and social cohesion for years to come and this error of judgement by our CEO does not reflect the county FA in any way.'
